

Melani Wilson Smith

Senior Vice President Global Procurement & Market Supply Officer PepsiCo Foods North America

Melani Wilson Smith is Senior Vice President of Global Procurement & Market Supply Officer for PepsiCo Foods North America. In this role, Melani leads the market supply teams across PFNA, North America Indirects and North America Transport to deliver supply assurance and productivity savings, grow supplier relationships and build strategic capabilities and innovation, helping drive PepsiCo's growth.

Melani, who joined the company in 2020, has an extensive background in Supply Chain, Strategy, and Operations in the consumer goods, hospitality and pharmaceutical industries.

Prior to joining PepsiCo, Melani was the VP of Business Services and Procurement for Novo Nordisk Inc., where she led the team responsible for Facilities, Fleet, Travel, Security and Procurement. Her experience includes various supply chain and operations roles with Mondelēz International, Merck & Co and Procter & Gamble.

Melani holds an MBA and a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration from Florida A&M University.

